Pakistan Tehreek-e-Insaf (PTI) – Intra-party tribunal fiasco continues

Followed by a letter written by the Chairman PTI to the head of PTI election tribunal, Justice (r) Wajihuddin Ahmed, on July 4, 2015<sup>1</sup> in which he stated his acceptance of the findings of the tribunal's report and that Justice (r) Wajihuddin should immediately refrain from issuing any further pronouncements on behalf of the defunct election tribunal, the names of 69 members of the party as part of its Central Advisory Council were announced in order to advise the Chairman on party and political affairs till fresh intra-party elections could take place.<sup>2</sup> However, this effort did not stop the internal feud and eventually, Mr. Imran Khan met with Justice (r) Wajihuddin along with Mr. Hamid Khan, a key founding member of PTI, on July 30, 2015 to talk in detail about their reservations, especially with regards to those members whose party membership had been earlier suspended by the election tribunal.<sup>3</sup>

Pakistan Tehreek-e-Insaf (PTI) – Imran Khan's policy statement on his own place in the party in PTI National Council meeting and implications for intra-party democracy

PTI held its National Council meeting on August 2, 2015 at Marriott Hotel in Islamabad. Imran Khan, in his address to the party members, openly lauded the former Secretary General and current Central Organiser of PTI Jahangir Tareen, highlighting his organizational skills and loyalty to the party, and former President of PTI Lahore, Mr. Aleem Khan for his generous donations to the party when it had gone bankrupt during the protests of August 2014. These are two of the four party officials who were strongly criticised by the tribunal constituted by the party under the chairmanship of Justice (Retired) Wajihuddin for allegedly rigging the party elections in 2012-13 and had asked for their suspension from the party offices. Not only this, Chairman Imran Khan went on to make some important policy pronouncements about his own place and powers within the party which have serious implications for the intra-party democracy which Imran Khan built so painstakingly. He said, “Ab mere sey yeh poochein, key kon faisla kerey ga key nazriya kis ka kitna hai, kon faisla kerey ga key kis ne party ke liye kitna kaam kiya? Mein faisla keroon ga! Mein faisla keroon ga! Yeh mera faisla hai! Yeh kisi ka faisla nahin hai, yeh mera faisla hai! Mein hun, mein pehle din sey party mein hun, mein sari party janta hun, kya mujhe nai pata kon party ke liye kya kaam kerta hai?”

Translation:

“Now you ask me who will decide who is how much ideologically committed? Who will decide who worked how much for the party? I will decide! I will decide! It's my decision! No one else will decide; I'm the one! I have been in the party since day one! I know all the party and don't I know who does what and how much for the party.”

started to appear on various television shows, portraying a campaign to promote the PTI election tribunal's decisions and reiterated that a four-member 'qabza' group, inclusive of Mr. Jahangir Tareen, Mr. Aleem Khan, Mr. Pervez Khattak and Mr. Nadir Leghari, had taken over the reins of the party and they needed to be eliminated immediately in accordance with the orders of the party's election tribunal.<sup>4</sup>

Following this open dissent, on August 4, 2015, an official notification<sup>5</sup> was passed by the Chairman PTI, which stated that basic party membership would be immediately suspended if any comments were made on party's internal affairs in electronic, print or social media by any member of the party. And on August 5, 2015, this notification was brought to its implementation when the spokesperson for the Chairman PTI, Dr. Shireen M. Mazari, passed a notification that Justice (r) Wajihuddin's party membership had been suspended with immediate effect for openly defying party discipline and continuing to air internal party matters in public.<sup>6</sup>

Muttahida Qaumi Movement (MQM)– Dissolves and Re-emerges

On the night of July 23, 2015, MQM chief Altaf Hussain called on members of the Rabita Committee and ordered them to close down all offices, including the Nine Zero headquarters, on immediate basis. His orders were duly fulfilled and members of the party gathered outside Mr. Altaf Hussain's residence in Azizabad in order to extend their grievances regarding his decision along with their apologies. Media reports say that this action was taken as a result of the party chief's dissatisfaction over certain organisational matters that were not being properly handled by the Rabita Committee. Early the next morning, on July 24, 2015, the chief reverted his decision, all offices were re-opened and everyone was back to work.<sup>7</sup>

Following this dramatic shut down of the party, only three days later, on July 26, 2015, the party chief Altaf Hussain passed orders to sack members of the Rabita Committee that included Dr. Farooq Sattar, Dr. Khalid Maqbool Siddiqui, Senator Nasreen Jalil and Mr. Amir Khan. There is no count recorded for the number of times members of the main executive body of the party have been sacked by the party chief.

Media reports say that organizational matters of the party have been discussed in these meetings with regards to the PPP's presence in Punjab and the aim has been to establish direct contact with people in order to reorganize itself. It was also hinted that the chairman would visit the province himself for the purpose of its reorganization post Eid-ul-Fitr but no such action has so far come into the picture.
